

the Listening Post

January 1999

A note from Dorothy Crankshaw's daughter stated that she is living in an assisted living center. She isn't doing any writing but loves to hear from her friends. Please drop her a line.

Laura Hagg would like to thank everyone for their cards and get well wishes. They were greatly appreciated.

In previous newsletters, activity leader for Bridge should have read Dottie Kerber and Rita Teehan.

Two people who had helped "set up" the library were omitted. Thanks also to Gee Wee Schurman and Jane Wiley. Please refile by author OR leave in the box below. Thanks for your help in keeping the library arranged by author.

E-mail address for Wadleggers should have read framarw @ ewol.com.

Board Talk The directors ask that you do the following:

- * Do not speed in park. Speed limit is 10MPH.
- * Do not feed the cats.
- * Update your emergency telephone # and address in the Office.
- * Have your guests register in office.
- * Do not yell or scream at the lawn service people. Give your complaint to lawn committee representative, Fran Wadlegger.
- * Band your trees - protect your antennas, etc. It is your responsibility!
